Numb. 13682. [695]

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday July 8, to Saturday July 12, 1794.

Westminster, July 11, 1794.

THIS Day His Majesty came to the House of Peers, and being in His Royal Robes seated on the Throne with the usual Solemnity, Sir Francis Molyneux, Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod, was sent with a Message from His Majesty to the House of Commons, commanding their Attendance in the House of Peers. The Commons being come thither accordingly, His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech:

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

THE State of Publick Business enables Me now to close this Session of Parliament; in doing which I have again to acknowledge that Assiduity and Zeal for the Interests of My People, of which you had before given Me so many Proofs, and which have been so particularly manifested in the present Year.

I am persuaded that you entertain too just a Sense of the Nature and Importance of the Contest in which We are engaged, to suffer your Zeal to be abated, or your Perseverance shaken, by the recent Successes of the Enemy in the Netherlands.

In a Moment which so strongly calls for Energy and Vigour, it is peculiarly gratifying to Me to reflect on the uniform Skill and Bravery of My Fleets and Armies, the undaunted Spirit and unwearied Exertions of My Officers and Troops in every Situation, and the general Publick Spirit of My People, which have never, at any Period, been more conspicuous.

I have observed, with the highest Satisfaction, the rapid and valuable Acquisitions made in the East and West Indies, the successful Operations which have been carried on in the Mediterranean, and the brilliant and decisive Victory obtained by My Fleet under the Command of Earl Howe, an Event which must ever be remembered as one of the most glorious in the Naval History of this Country.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

I return you My warmest Thanks for the Chearfulness and Liberality with which you have granted the large Supplies which were necessary for the Service of the Year, and for the Maintenance of a Cause equally important to the Security and Happiness of every Class of My Subjects.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I feel it incumbent upon Me particularly to acknowledge your Diligence in the Investigation of the Designs which had been formed against the Government and Constitution of these Kingdoms, and to thank you for the Confidence you have reposed in Me on this Occasion. It will be a principal Object of My Attention to make a vigorous and prudent Use of the additional Powers vested in Me for the Protection and Security of My People; and relying, as I do, with the utmost Confidence, on the uniform Loyalty and Publick Spirit of the great Body of My Subjects, I have no Doubt of speedily and effectually repressing every Attempt to disturb the Publick Peace, and of defeating the wicked Designs which have been in Agitation.

It must not, however, be forgotten, that these Designs against our Domestic Happiness are essentially connected with the System now prevailing in France, of which the Principles and Spirit are irreconcileably hostile to all regular and established Government: And that we are therefore called upon, by every Consideration of Our own internal Safety, to continue Our Efforts in Conjunction with My Allies, and to persevere with encreased Vigour and Exertion in a Contest, from the successful Termination of which which We can alone expect to eſtabliſh, on a ſolid and permanent Foundation, the future Security and Tranquillity either of this Country, or of the other Nations of Europe.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by His Majeſty's Command, ſaid;

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

IT is His Majeſty's Royal Will and Pleaſure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Tueſday the Nineteenth Day of Auguſt next, to be then here holden; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Tueſday the Nineteenth Day of Auguſt next.

Confiding in your Majeſty's wonted Anxiety to promote the Welfare and Happineſs of your People, we cannot conceal the flattering Hope we entertain that the deciſive Superiority of the Britiſh Navy, evinced by this auſpicious Event, together with the valuable and important Acquiſition of Territory, derived from the Succeſs of your Majeſty's Arms in the Eaſt and Weſt Indies, will prove the Means of accelerating an honourable and laſting Peace.

Senſible as we are of the invaluable Bleſſings we enjoy under a Form of Government which has ſo long been the Envy and Admiration of the World, we cannot refrain from gratefully acknowledging your Majeſty's paternal Care, in the Means you have adopted to avert the Danger which threatened the Deſtruction of our admirable Conſtitution, and the utter Subverſion of all Law and Order; to defend and to preſerve Conſtitution in it's genuine Purity, as eſtabliſhed at the glorious Revolution, we beg Leave to aſſure your Majeſty we will moſt zealouſly co-operate in ſuch Meaſures as ſhall be dictated by the Wiſdom and Energy which diſtinguiſh your Majeſty's Councils.

Naples, June 17.

On the 13th Ultimo, at Ten o'Clock at Night, all Naples was ſenſible of the Shock of an Earthquake, with an horizontal Motion, which laſted about Thirty Seconds. On Sunday laſt the 15th, about the ſame Hour, the Earthquake was repeated, which was followed by a violent Eruption of Mount Veſuvius. The Mountain opened in Two Places, towards the Center of it's Line, when Columns of black Smoke, mixed with liquid inflamed Matter, iſſued from each Mouth; ſoon after other Mouths were opened, and in a Line towards the Sea. The Exploſions from all theſe Mouths, louder than Thunder, mixed with ſharp Reports, as from the heavieſt Pieces of Artillery, accompanied by a hollow ſubterraneous Rumour, like that of the Sea in a Storm, cauſed all the Houſes to ſhake to their very Foundations. The Lavas guſhing from theſe Mouths, after having run Four Miles in a few Hours, deſtroyed the greateſt Part of the Town of Torre del Greco, about a Mile from Portici, and made a conſiderable Progreſs into the Sea, where it formed a Promontory about Ten Feet above it's Surface, and near a Quarter of a Mile broad, having heated the Water to ſuch a Degree that a Hand could not be borne in it at the Diſtance of 100 Yards from the Lava.

It cannot yet be aſcertained how many Lives have been loſt in that City. Many Families are miſſing, but whether they have eſcaped, or are buried under the Ruins of their Houſes, is not known. Naples is covered with Aſhes, and every Object is obſcured as in a thick Fog; but Veſuvius, though not viſible, continues very turbulent, and more Miſchief may be expected, although the Lavas are all ſtopped at this Moment. The Head of St. Januarius was carried in Proceſſion Yeſterday, and oppoſed to the Mountain by the Cardinal Archbiſhop of Naples, attended by many Thouſands of the Inhabitants of this City.

Downing-Street, July 10, 1794.

WHereas it has been repreſented to the Lords Commiſſioners of His Majeſty's Treaſury, that in the Night of the 18th Ultimo, about Eleven o'Clock, a Lugger of about Thirty Tons Burthen, laden with Spirits and Tobacco, appeared off Sizewell, on the Coaſt of Suffolk; that being hailed, and required to ſhorten Sail by the Boat belonging to His Majeſty's Exciſe Cutter the Lively, the ſaid Lugger diſcharged a Volley of Muſquetry into the ſaid Boat, and continued to engage her with Small Arms for about Ten Minutes, when Two Men were wounded; that, upon the Boat returning with more Men, the ſaid Lugger was found on Shore on Sizewell Beach, and immediately renewed the Firing, continued it for ſome Time, and wounded another Man; and that the Crew of the Lugger afterwards kept up a conſtant Fire on His Majeſty's Cutter till about One o'Clock, when they quitted the ſaid Lugger, and ſet her on Fire.

His Majeſty, for the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons under whoſe Direction or Conduct this Act of Violence and Felony has been committed, is hereby pleaſed to offer His moſt gracious Pardon to any one or more of the Offenders, who ſhall diſcover his, her or their Accomplices therein, (except the Maſter or Commander on Board the ſaid Lugger) ſo that he or they may be apprehended and convicted of the ſaid Offence.
